EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation).

These Regulations appoint the 18th of March 2022 a public holiday in celebration of the recognition of the efforts of the general public and Ireland's frontline workers during the Covid-19 pandemic and remembrance of people who lost their lives due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The Regulations are made pursuant to paragraph 1(g) of the Second Schedule to the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997 which allows days to be prescribed as public holidays for the purposes of the Act. This will be a once off new public holiday which will fall on the 18th of March 2022.

These regulations further appoint the first Monday in every February to be a public holiday, except where the 1st day of February happens to fall on a Friday in which case that day will be a public holiday, every year in celebration of Imbolc/St. Brigid's day. It marks the half-way point between the winter solstice and the equinox, the beginning of spring and the Celtic New Year. The first such public holiday will be Monday 6th February 2023.
