EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations amend S.I. No. 184 of 2007 in order to give further effect to Directive (EU) 2016/2341 and to take account of obligations imposed on trust RACs that operate on a cross-border basis by the European Union (Occupational Pension Schemes) Regulations 2021 (S.I. No. 128 of 2021) by -

- prescribing the relevant statutory requirements for the purposes of sections 151B and 154 of the Pensions Act 1990;
- specifying additional compliance requirements in respect of statements to be signed by trustees for the purposes of satisfying the Pensions Authority that they comply with section 149(4)(a) of the Act;
- inserting a new Regulation 4A to specify the information to be provided to the Pensions Authority by the trustees of a trust RAC, who are deemed, under section 151A(13)(a), authorised under section 149, for the purposes of satisfying the Pensions Authority that they comply with the conditions of authorisation under section 149(4)(a);
- prescribing, in the case of a trust RAC which seeks to accept contributions from an undertaking prior to 31st December 2021, the relevant sections of the Act for the purposes of section 149(3);
- inserting a new Regulation 7A to require trustees of a receiving trust RAC referred to in section 151A(13) of the Act, where approval under section 151 has been deemed to have been granted under section 151(13)(b), to notify the Pensions Authority of the information set out in Schedule 2;
- making textual and technical amendments to the existing Schedule;
- inserting a new Schedule 2 to specify the information to be provided to the Pensions Authority by trust RACs referred to in section 151A(13) where approval under section 151 has been deemed to have been granted under section 151A(13)(b), and
- making a number of other technical amendments.
