Amendment of Rule 12 of Principal Rules

9. The Principal Rules are amended by substituting for Rule 12 the following:

"Inspections of bodies and healthcare providers

12. (1) The Board shall appoint a team of persons with relevant knowledge, experience and expertise ("a site inspection team") to inspect bodies delivering, or seeking to deliver, education and training programmes, and their associated training facilities and healthcare providers, for the purposes of—

- (a) assessing applications under Rule 9,
- (b) carrying out reviews under Rule 11(1), and
- (c) carrying out monitoring under Rule 11(2).

(2) A person appointed to a site inspection team under paragraph (1) shall not have an interest that is likely to influence the outcome of the application under Rule 9, the review under Rule 11(1) or the monitoring under Rule 11(2), as the case may be.

(3) A site inspection team shall not interfere with the delivery of the education and training programme in the course of its inspection.

(4) A site inspection team shall, having carried out an inspection, report in writing to the Board.

(5) A report pursuant to paragraph (4) may recommend that the Board—

- (a) grant its approval of a proposed education and training programme,
- (b) continue its approval of an education and training programme,
- (c) grant its approval of a proposed education and training programme subject to certain specified conditions,
- (d) continue its approval of an education and training programme subject to certain specified conditions,
- (e) defer its decision on continued approval of an education and training programme pending the resolution, to the satisfaction of the Board, of specified issues of concern arising from the inspection,
- (f) refuse to grant approval of a proposed education and training programme on the basis of specified reasons, or
- (g) withdraw approval of an education and training programme on the basis of specified reasons.”.
